

Saturday 8th Dec 2018

Seddon Square
Band Rotunda Program

10.00am	Big Picnic
10.30am	Opening Ceremony
10.35am	Drama Queens
11.05am	Father Christmas arrives
11.15am	Jump Jam Children
11.35am	Big Picnic
12.05 pm	Craig Smith
12.50pm	Drama Queens
1.20pm	Big Picnic
1.50pm	Craig Smith
2.35pm	Drama Queens
3.05 pm	Jump Jam Children
3.25pm	Big Picnic

Roving Entertainers throughout the day on both parks

Louise Kerr

Highly Inflammables – watch out for 2 stilt walking zoo animals

Waimate Highland Pipe Band

Craig Smith Specialising in cruisy, easy listening, children's and sometimes humorous acoustic music. Craig recently gained worldwide fame with his children's book "The Wonkey Donkey" one of a number of children's books he has published. Craig will be at the Fare this year to entertain both adults and children alike.

Big Picnic O J and Kirsty from Timaru return as the resident band this year. They play the songs you know and love from the 60's right through to today. Party, Rock and Swingtime

Drama Queens Alice Sollis, Sharleyne Diamond and Tracey Austin also return to the Fare. These three girls from Timaru entertain with three part harmonies, fabulous solos and songs to suit all tastes. They provide the perfect atmosphere for any occasion.

Jump Jam Entertainers from our local schools

Louise Kerr Louise will entertain on both Seddon Square and Boland Park. Lou Lou loves to impress everyone with her ability to ride, skip, jump and juggle on a unicycle. She also twists balloons into awesome creations from a sword to a crazy eyed fish she can make just about everything. Kids and parents alike love Lou Lou, she's that clumsy but loveable clown you wish was your aunty.

Highly Inflammables Two Zoo Animal Stilt Walkers will entertain over two hours on both Seddon Square and Boland Park

Waimate Highland Pipe Band An old favourite at the Strawberry Fare and will be entertaining on Boland Park

Stalls 275 stalls situated on both Seddon Square and Boland Park

A wide range of food and beverage, Community Stall with bacon burgers and sausage sizzle. Mexican food, Turkish food, Gluten Free and Vegetarian Foods.

Don't Forget to Visit Santa's Grotto at the Community Centre